V. R. C. SMORING CONCERT.

On Saturday night the Victoria Recreation Club held a smoking concert in the Gymnasium. with decidedly encouraging results. The hon. J. H. Stewart-Lockharl, chairman of the Club. presided, and there were about 150 members present. In spite of the very limited space available, the Committee and Steward had managed to find ample room for all. The west end of the Gymnasi m was screened of with flags, in the centre of which was peep-hole, ten feet square, like a Punch-and Judy box, with a raised floor of similar area. which served as a stage. The rest of the room was occupied by the audience, grouped in the usual manner about amail tables; and the walls and entrance were admirably decorated, and illuminated by Chinese lanterns. The room the Middle Temple, was admitted to practise in a itself was splendidly lighted by two large arc

"Poet and Peasant," which was loudly applauded. "Miss" G.C. Hayward, the charming young Buneboat Nell of the "Sons of Neptune, it then appeared in his favourite character of a little golden-haired fairy, a perfect sunbeam in petticoats, and was so successful in his version of the comic song "Ob. Mr. Porter! that the Chairman was compelled to allow an exception to the rule prohibiting encores. (By the way, this was not the only rule broken on Saturday; for the WR.C. building is decorated with notices that "not drinks can be served after nine o'c'ock.") As an encore, Mr. Hayward gave "Madame Duvan." which was equally well received. Mr. W. E Crow was not heard to advantage in "The Bandit," as the ridiculous stage drapings almost completely smothered the cound, which was greatly to be deplored, as smeking concerts are not usually productive of many really good musical items. Mr. G. Vowles was enthusiastically applieded for his very funny song " The Good Old Annual," with a fine chorus | had in response to loud calls-for another exception to the no-encore rule, he gave "Katie Conin good style. Messrs. Grace, beautiful trio could not fail to be bighly appreclated. The concluding item of the first half of the programme was "The man who broke the Bank at Monte Carlo," by the popular favourite. Mr. C. Robinson, in whose case another "exception" had to be made, the audience being favoured with "Good company." The second part was commenced by Mr. Murphy and his merry men in a selection of Coster Songs admirably performed. Mr. Robinson again obliged with "My old Dutch" with chorus by the audience, an undeniable recall producing "Yussi" with which Hongkong audiences have been delighted on previous occasions. Staff-Sergeant Tennant warbled "The Cuckes" to the life, with much success, though the efforts of the audience to join in the somewhat difficult chorus were more energetic than artistic ference must be given to his encore effort "Der Abt won Philipsbrau." The change from comic to classical music would have been much more agreeable if Mr. Grace's "I would I were King," an excellent song excellently rendered had been untrammetted by the acoustic iniquities aircidy mentioned. Mr. G. Vowles, the East Point orator, then appeared in his favourite role with nigger costume and gingham, and addressed his "brethren" on "warlous subjects, after which Mr. G. C. Hayward and Mr. R. F. Lammert went through a fairly satisfactory ductentitled "Land shoy in Another selection by the bind, "Smoker reminiscences," of Mr. Murphy's composition, rendered with spirit, brought the programme of a very pleasant evening to a close. The Chairman at the conclusion expressed a hope that this very successful concert would be followed by a series of periodical resentons on similar lines. Mr. G. C. C. Master.

all will sincerely hope he will be as much appreciated as he will be missed in Horgkong.

Early in the afternoon the weather wore a threatening aspect but the rain held off and at times the heat was most appressive. The "ring" was in admirable order and at 130 p.m. the first bout was called on, Mr. W. Waters was chosen referee and Mr. Tennant time-keeper. One or two of the fermer's decisions were questioned by some of the chlookers but on the whole the officials gave satisfaction. In the second round both men took things a trifle easier, it being "bellows to mend" in one corner anyhow, but in the third each strove for victory and the fighting was a bit wild although hardly an opening offered itself without being instantly taken advantage of. In this respect Hussey was the quicker of the two and got "home" with his right several times with stunning effect. "Evens" was the decision of the referee, so another round of one minute was allowed the men to decide the "mill" A most spirited rally resulted and Ross was declared the winner. This decision did not meet with thorough approval but as the men were boxing for points no one excepting the referee was in a position to accurately judge.

BECKETT, R.E. V. WALKER, S.L.I. This event also resulted in an interesting tussic although at first it seemed that the men were most unevenly matched. Beckett having a decided advantage in reach and style. Walker however, warmed up to his work and entered into the spirit of his contract in a manner that did him infinite credit. Beckett has a most effective "right" but for some reason or another it was not once brought into play. Walker did not forget his, though, and landed some terrific body and shoulder blows on his opponent. The third round resulted in such even business that the referee decided that a "finisher" of 1 minutes' duration would be the fairest way of settling the point. This was won by Beckett after a very interesting bout.

An interval of fifteen minutes followed when a quir and a flow the Manh was morred on to face the hope of the Royal Engineers, and the hottest battle of the day was confidently expected. This was

OTTER, Linnel, v. THOMAS, R.E. Otter had all the best of it in weight and reach and the friends of the plucky R. Thomas was the first to land home with an eye-opener which seemed to rouse the wrath of the "noble" Tar, who at once began to bring his right into play with anything but pleasant effect on the R. E.'s ribs. Hard fighting followed but when about half the round had used up Thomas' chance came and with a lightning stab he got home on the sailor's jaw laying him fairly in the dust where doubt less he saw more stars than are in the heavens above. Thomas allowed him ample time to "come round" and although declared the winner he volunteered to conclude the three rounds if the matter were sgreeable to the son of Neptune. This was agreed to but after the Engineer had landed one or two on "Jacks" port bow he ciled a go, and without word or warning tossed off his gloves and walked out of the ring. Otter were not "trying it on," which was openly ascerted, it is to be hoped that there are not many more of his kidney wearing the good old Blue. After this Thomas boxed three friendly rounds with Reynolds, R.E. just to fill in time;

then came the veriest event of the day. "JIM" CAMPBELL, R. E. V. "BILLY" WILTSHIRE, R.E. Both men are reported to have won many hard-fought and sangularry battles and each being envious of the laurels of the other it was decided that the delicate question of supremacy couli not better be decided than in the ring at Causeway Bay. "Jim" is a youth of the bean-stalk stamp and when in fighting array weighs something near o stone although between 6 and 7 feet in height. He is beautifully balanced on his feet, like most High anders, and cannot well be knocked off them. Wiltshire, on the contrary, is of medium stature and does not stand over a third of the ground taken up by his opponent Mr. J. Meier followed in his irresistibly comic. Their styles are new to the boxing world and song "In Pasewalk," beyond a doubt the most were subjects of spirited discussion and compailliant triumph of the evening, unless the pre- rison amongst their immediate followers. FIRST DAY,-TUESDAY, MAY 2ND.

Postponed from yesterday owing to the heavy rains which have fatten for some days past, the Shanghal Spring Races were commenced this afternoon under circumstances the reverse of favorable. The morning opened cold and damp, and although rain did not actually fall during the races, the surroundings generally were dismal and dispiriting. But in spite of all climatic drawbacks there was a comparatively large gathering of the sporting community, and it was quite cheering to see so many ladles present, most of whom were "wrapped and coated well" and yet looked as if they were cold. The Town Band under Signor Vela's experienced direction, discoursed sweet music with conspicuous success their efforts to enliven a somewhat dead-andalive business being greatly appreclated; and another little function, known as the part-mutual was most liberally patronised by the sporting element in spite of that sickening 'chestnut' regarding hard times, 'busted' communities, and other heart-rending atrocities. The course was a regular quagmire, but improved as the afternoon wore on, and taking everything into consideration the times made ior the various events were certainly above th average. With few exceptions big fields ruled and the racing proved of a most interesting and exciting character. The ball was set a-rolling by thirteen Subscription griffins sporting slik for the Subscription Stakes, and when all the favorites went down before Toke, with a novice in the saddle, whose relitary backer in the pari " picked up the nice little sum of $650 minus commission, for his $5 investment there was quite a sensation in the enclosure, and it is even asserted that Mr. Peter Pond was heard to chuckle audibly when the Clerk of the Scales pronounced the "all right." With Hero i reserve for the Cathay Cup. Majestic, with Mr. Sassoon riding, had an easy task set him in the Criterious and he scored a bloodless victory from four opponents. Sans Parcil's sensational performances in training made him a hot favorite for the griffins, notwithstanding reports from usually well-informed quarters that he had ' gone stale' and was off his feed; but the supporters of Osman, Congo, and Mr. Sassoon's fleet were all more or less sanguine, and as a matter of fact Barleycorn, ridden by Mr. Dallas in the * peacock blue and old gold held the issue safe from start to finish, winning easily from his stable companion Blackberry and Mr. Toeg's Congo, who dead-heated for the tacle so apportioned to the second pony. Here had no difficulty in running away from Tallsman and Noirmont in the Cathay Cup, and then Firefly, steered by his sporting owner, secured a popular victory in the Jockey Cup, beating the overrated Sans Pareil by a short head with the Griffius runner-up a capital third. Bovril, in much better condition than when he raced in Hongkong last February, made hacks of Home Guard, Vagrant, Lightning and two others in the Klang-su Plate, covering the mile and three quarters in 4 min. 12 zecs., a wonderful performance on such a heavy and helding track Scorcher from the levisthan stable, an outsider that ran very is at in the Griffins', upset al calculations in the Hart Legacy Cup when in the hands of that old Hongkong "sport Count Mickeydoe, he ran clean away from a the favorites, including Hollyhock, Teutonic, Merry Thought and other famous short distance flyers. That enthusiastic Hongkong patron of racing, Mr Buxey, was credited with a popular win in the Racing Stakes by the ald of Torchlight-a pony that performed ve y indifferently and rather inconsistently at the Hongkong Jockey Club meeting-who was ridden by Mi Hector Sampson with great judgment, and beat Congo and Preceptor after a most interesting race. The same jockey steered Smuggler to victory in the Roadsters' Plate, bearing three better favorites in Arimas, Cartridge and Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay, and the day's proceedings were brought to a close by Omar, Mr. Meyerink up, easily landing the Grand Stand Stakes from Blue Beard, Norseman and eight others. The arrangements were all that could be desired and the starting, excepting in one or two instances, was quite up to Mr. Gore-Booth's best form.
